BIOGRAPHY - DISCOGRAPHY

Professional Profile

Gábor Sziráky is a seasoned cultural professional and ballet master with decades of international experience. He has worked extensively across almost every country in Europe, as well as in China, Japan, and India. As a ballet master and creative director, he has lived and worked in a variety of cultural environments, leading numerous international productions and collaborations. His career has shaped him into a highly adaptable, culturally sensitive leader with a deep understanding of cross-cultural communication.

He speaks fluent English and has basic conversational skills in both Japanese and Russian. His passions include building bridges between cultures, travel, and fostering international cooperation. Having spent several years working in India, China, and Japan, he has developed in-depth knowledge of Asian cultures, educational methods, and psychological approaches.
